lottery-selected diverse innovations
Innovating to Support Student Success

P.K. Yonge provides personalized instruction for every student by leveraging technology integration, grouping students and teachers into learning communities, and building strong systems of support.
multi-tiered system of supports universal design for learning multi-grade learning communities flexible grouping 1:1 devices
blended learning
formative assessments
standards-based grading future innovation
low mobility rate
constraints
opportunities 30,000 each year
educator outreach
UF research partners
current strategies
lessons learned
future considerations